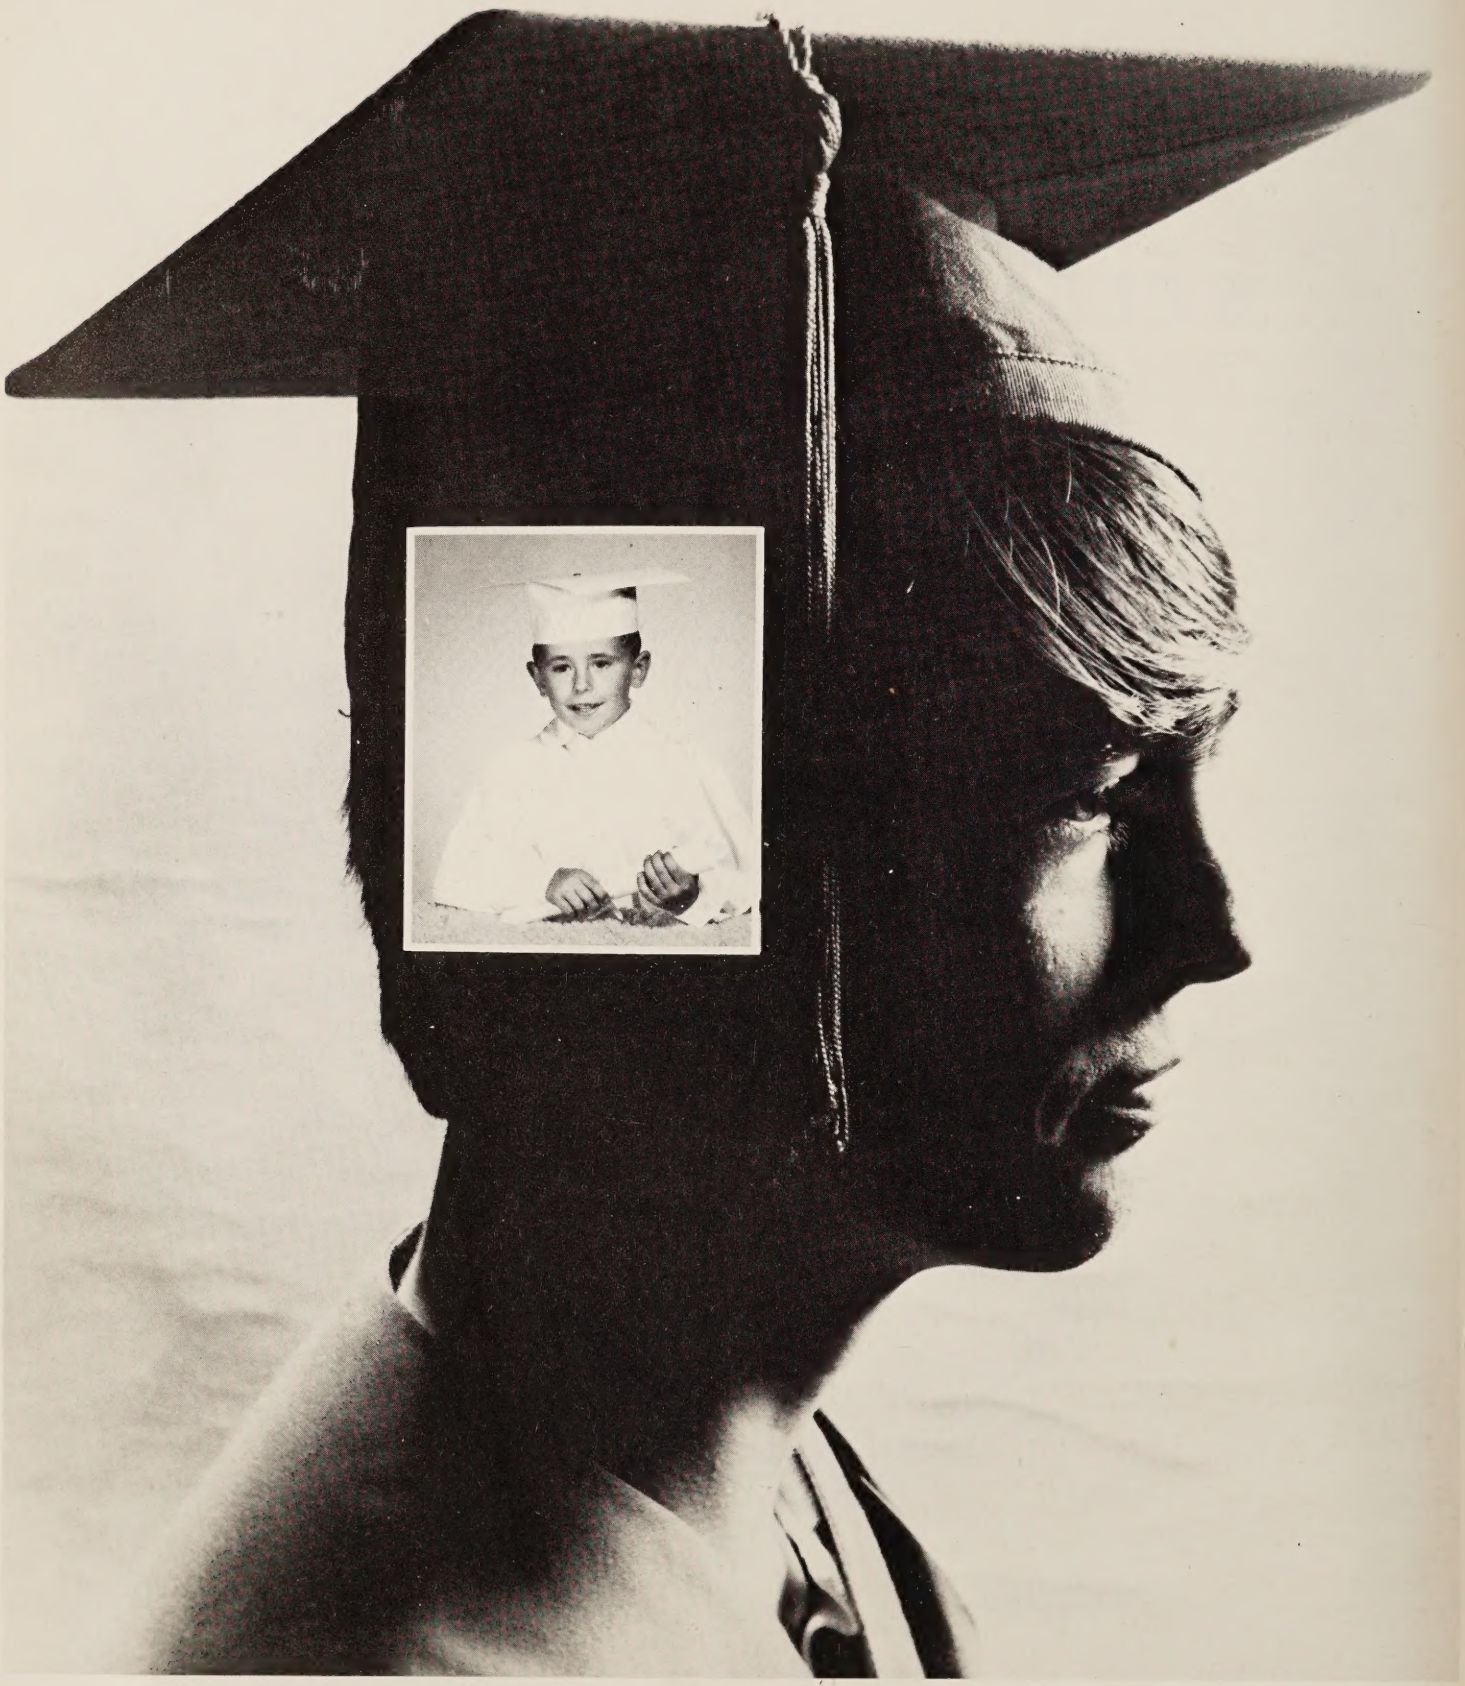
A TALON WELCOME TO THE WORLD OF

M011017720



Foreword

As the history of the past two decades unfolded, a generation emerged—our generation. Born amidst the anger of the 1960's, we learned to survive. We were influenced in early years by men such as John F. Kennedy and Martin Luther King, Jr; we gained even deeper insight when each fell at the hands of assassins. When we started school, a war no one could understand was being fought on the other side of the world and yet it seemed to be forgotten—for a while anyway—when Neil Armstrong took his "giant leap for mankind."

The decade of the 1970's rolled around and with it came political corruption. We saw the first resignation ever of a President of the United States. The Vietnam conflict finally ended—without the smell of victory—and encouraged us to strive for international peace. Then came economic problems on the home front—we learned the definition of "inflation." But we have made it, we have survived; "That was then, this is now."Transforming hostility into creative energy, we attempted the impossible—and succeeded. We became responsible citizens, eager to play the "game of life".

The 1980 TALON reflects on the events that molded our character. As David Neel (left) has grown and changed through the 60's and 70,'s so have we all. Seniors as well as some teachers can be seen—as we were—pictured throughout the book. The TALON staff bids you a fond

Triumph and Tragedy

The 1960's began and ended with hope, but in between were displays of violence that still remain unequaled. In 1960 the nation elected its youngest president, John F. Kennedy, with the promise of a "New Frontier." But it was the decade of the assassin — John Kennedy, Martin Luther King, Jr., and Robert Kennedy all paid the price. Lyndon B. Johnson was hastily sworn in aboard Air Force 1 in 1963 and the U.S. was soon in the middle of the controversial conflict in Vietnam. National attention shifted from thoughts of tragedy to visions of triumph when, in 1969, Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin first stepped into the "New Frontier." sfa

Rock and Rebellion

During the 1960's the emphasis was on communication, be it through music, fashion, or sports. Rock music changed with the Beatles invasion in 1964 and climaxed at Woodstock in 1969. Fashions were as unique as the decade itself when Twiggy introduced the miniskirt. For athletes it was the era of the underdog—Joe Namath led his New York Jets to victory in Super Bowl III and Wilma Rudolph sprinted her way to three gold medals in the 1960 Rome Olympics. sfa

Disgrace and Disappointment

Watergate caused Americans to become disillusioned with politics in the 1970's. In 1974 Richard Nixon became the first president to resign. Gerald Ford spent his term trying to restore faith in government and lost in 1976 to Jimmy Carter. Patricia Hearst was kidnapped by the SLA and the cry of "no nukes" rang from coast to coast following an accident at Three Mile Island. As the decade drew to a close, 50 Americans were being held hostage by Iranian militants. sfa

Attempt and Achievement

The 1970's was the decade of achieving the impossible. Mark Spitz won a record seven gold medals at the tragic 1972 Munich Olympics and Bruce Jenner dazzled us at Montreal in 1976. Evel Knievel attempted to jump the treacherous Snake River Canyon in his custom-made rocket. Movies provided two means of escape—disco fever swept the country with the gyrations of John Travolta in "Saturday Night Fever" and interest in science fiction was regenerated with the likes of "Star Wars." sfa

CHEERLEADERS

A big part of Bird's athletics is the cheerleaders. Chosen in the spring, they begin practice during the summer, attend camp, and continue their activities throughout the entire year. As a result of their enthusiastic leadership, Bird was this year's recipient of the AA Sportsmanship Trophy.

But for a breath-taking 7-6 loss to Matoaca, the Varsity gridiron specialists would have been the Southside District champs. They did, however, receive a wild card berth to the AA Regional playoffs, but lost to defending state champion, Southampton, in the first round. Team statistician Chris King attended every game and because of his spirit and determination, a special award was named in his honor. This year's recipient was Todd Ludwig. Though 17 seniors will be lost to graduation, next year's team should be equally tough in the all-new Dominion district.

Stick it to them

Competing in Central District play this season, the hockey team handed in an impressive 5-4-1 record. Co-captain Jackie Claiborne earned defensive player of the year honors while Co-captain, Terri Van Meter grabbed the offensive player title. Next season the team moves into Dominion District play and looks forward to the challenge.

Through the cold, inclement weather, Cross Country team runners practiced endlessly. Posting a 4-8 and 2-2 record (respectively) boys and girls showed vast improvement over last year. Boys topped off their season with a 6th place in Varsity C Region I Meet; Girls placed 8th in Virginia Tech's Cross Country Invitational. Only Jim Mann and Susan McLean will hang up their track shoes this year, so the team looks forward to a bright record next season.

Lady Skyhawks

Lady Skyhawks hit the court hard this year taking the seasonal title and the district title. Although road trips were long and hard, the girls still had enough in them to show their opponents what a tough team they are. Sticking to their motto, "We Are Family", the girls worked together making a strong bond that could NOT be broken. With every team member playing well, three awards were given for best offensive players, best defensive player and 110% during each game. The winner of one of the awards wore a skyhawk necklace. This brought encouragement to the team and helped lead the girls through a tough but victorious season. With most of the starting lineup returning, the team is looking forward to continuing the winning tradition.

Swoop the Hoop

The Lady Skyhawks posted a 16-2 record in season No. 2. Three members received special honors making the All-District Team were Lynne Gilbert and Brenda Stargardt (first team). Kim Dunn received Honorable Mention. On the All Tournament team were Kim Dunn, Lynne Gilbert, and Brenda Stargardt. On the All-Metro were Brenda Stargardt (first team), Lynne Gilbert (second team) and Kim Dunn (honorable mention).

Place Second in State

Varsity cagers scored their way to a 23-5 record, losing only to Brunswick. But they came back in the Regional AA tournament to beat the Bulldogs and win the title. In the state tournament, the Skyhawks beat Harrisonburg, the defending champion. But their Cinderella season ended in a heart-stopping game against Martinsville which resulted in a 59-57 double overtime loss. Congratulations to the team, cheerleaders, and fans for an excellent season. Coach of the Year, Tester promises more victories next season.

Once More

After two years of competition, the girls' track team has yet to be beaten during the regular season. Under the leadership of Lisa Friend (district champ in both the shot and discus) and Karen West (most versatile runner), the team placed first in Chesterfield County and first in the Southside District.

Get Keyed-up

Sponsored by the local Kiwanis, the Key and Keyette Clubs strive to serve the community and the school. Activities include collecting clothes for the needy, aiding during the Ronald McDonald run-a-thon, helping park cars at home football games, and donating the bird mascot to the school. The Keyettes organized the second annual "Beak Week," in keeping with the legend of Sadie Hawkins. Students dressed up, wore hats, and went western. Chad Spencer and Michelle Edmonds won free dance tickets on "Twin day" (below right). Festivities climaxed Friday night at the dance with tunes played by our resident disc jockeys—Earl and Burrell Fisher.

Annie Got Her Gun

Drama's spring production, "Annie, Get Your Gun," was a smashing success. Action centered around the adventures of Annie Oakley—her alliance with Buffalo Bill and her attempt to woo Frank Butler. Bird's second theatrical season ended when Annie got her man.

Emotions dominate the faces of Lloyd C. Bird's first seniors as they wait to capture their excitement on film. The members of the Class of 1980 play many roles—as leaders, tradition builders, and practical jokers. But as June 5 draws nearer, looks of anticipation turn to expressions of bewilderment as seniors contemplate life after high school.

Drama Goes

Thanks to the Drama Club, L. C. Bird students spent Friday nights getting off to the sounds of Little Walter. Disco victory dances were held after Friday night home basketball games in a cafeteria packed with "boogieing" Skyhawks. Drama Club sponsored throw a sponge at your "favorite" teacher and bake sales also provided funds for productions such as this fall hit "The Death and Life of Sneaky Fitch." THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

May 12, 1980

TO THE 1980 GRADUATES OF
LLOYD C. BIRD HIGH SCHOOL

Congratulations on your graduation. I am pleased to have been asked to join your relatives and friends in celebrating with you this important occasion in your lives.

Only a few decades ago, going to high school and earning a diploma were prized objectives that many people only dreamed about -- if not for themselves at least for their children. Today, most of us take a high school education for granted since it is within reach of anyone who wants one and is willing to work for it. With notable exceptions, this is true.

Our country has made significant progress in providing opportunities for all our young people to acquire the skills and training which will enable them to further their development on their own, to pursue careers and to become productive members of society -- either following high school graduation or after further schooling.

Your graduation marks a milestone, therefore, in regard to public expectation. Although you will continue to learn on your job or in another school, you are now presumed to be prepared to make a living and to assume responsibility for yourselves.

Your graduation marks formal entry into the adult society with its characteristic privileges and corresponding obligations. As you pursue your own personal goals, I hope you will always reflect that it is up to you to help make your community, your country and the world a better place for the next generation.

Rosalynn joins me in applauding your achievements and in sending best wishes to each of you.

Jimmy Carter
